Turnbull Wine Cellars Offers Wine, Pairings And Fine Art Photography Fit For A King

The Turnbull name dates back to the early 1300s, when a close friend of Robert the Bruce saved the king's life by turning away a ferocious bull that had threatened to gore the king. The grateful king knighted him "Turnbull" and awarded him a crest featuring a bull's head. That crest has adorned the wines crafted by this classic Napa Valley winery since its founding in 1979 by famed American architect William Turnbull.

Taste current releases of Turnbull's acclaimed estate-grown Oakville wines in the Main Tasting and Retail Room ($10). Or visit their Reserve Tasting Room and Gallery to sample their reserve wines, often paired with cheese and chocolate ($20).

Focusing on fine art as well as fine wine, Turnbull Wine Cellars boasts one of the largest permanent photography exhibitions on the West Coast. The collection consists of vintage works that rotate every six months, elegantly displayed in the Reserve Tasting Room. Each show features 60 to 90 original, privately-owned works by master photographers including Ansel Adams, Edward Weston, Berenice Abbott, Eugene Atget, Andre Kertesz, Edward Steichen and Yousuf Karsh. There is no charge to tour the gallery.

The Turnbull hospitality staff hosts Wine & Food Pairing Classes in the exclusive VIP room. Turnbull's wine educator will guide you through the intricacies of food and wine pairing as you sip their limited release wines. The Wine & Food Pairing is $40 for the general public and $20 for Turnbull wine club members. Reservations with 72 hours advance notice are required; please contact Laura Brasfield (LBrasfield@turnbullwines.com) for more information.
